Please do not lift the ban on in-flight cell-phone usage. Not only is a vector for significant annoyance to "captive" passengers, it is potentially a very simple way for terrorists to communicate and coordinate their activities.

Thank you.